

Para was the Kerala traditional paddy measuring unit vessels in the past. In the ancient days, after good harvest seasons, Paras used to offer rice to their God at Temples. The same practiced even today when the special festival occasion like Onam and Vishu.

In the Present days Para is used as decorative showpiece which is kept as a reminder of the rich old Tradition and a symbol of Prosperous. This Brass Decorative Para is a showpiece Item to decorate to adorn Home and Office. A symbol of prosperity & abundance of the traditional nelpara are in high demand in today. It is an essential items at the occasion of Hindu wedding ceremony, it filled with husked rice and coconut tree flowers placed inside this beautiful Nirapara vessel to the heavenly feel & colourful events.